

Sonny

♩ = 140

C

G

D<sup>7</sup>

6

T. Son ny_ don't go a - way_ I'm here all a - lone, _ Your

H1. Son ny_ don't go a - way_ I'm here all a - lone, _ Your

H2. Son ny_ don't go a - way_ I'm here all a - lone, _ Your

11

T. Da - dy's a sai - lor ne - ver comes home.

H1. Da - dy's a sai - lor ne - ver comes home.

H2. Da - dy's a sai - lor ne - ver comes home.

C G

15

T. Nights are so long, si - lence goes_ on I'm

H1. Nights are so long, si - lence goes_ on I'm

H2. Nights are so long, si - lence goes_ on I'm

D

19

T. fee - ling so tired, Not all that strong.

H1. fee - ling so tired, Not all that strong.

H2. fee - ling so tired, Not all that strong.

C G D

24 Verse 1 G
T.
Son-ny_ lives on a farm, in a far dis-tant place, Take off your

30 C G D
T.
shoes, stay out of the race. Lean on your head, by the soft ri - ver.

36 C G D
T.
bed, Son-ny al - ways re - mem - bers the words Ma-ma says.

42 Verse 2 G
T.
Son-ny_ lives all a - lone, though he's bare - ly a man, There's not much to

48 C G D
T.
do, but he does what he can. Sits by the win-dow, in his room by the

54 C G D
T.
stairs, Watch - ing the waves drift - ting soft on the wind.

60 Verse 3 (Instrumental before this verse) G
T.
Man-y_ years have all gone, Son-ny's old & a - lone, His Dad-dy's a

66 C G D
T. sai - lor, ne - ver came home. Some-times he won-ders what his

71 C G D
T.
life might have been, Still far a - way, Ma-ma's voice calls his name.