

The Kangaroo Song

Keith Murray

Am G⁷ C Dm Em F C

As the kan - ga-roo sat on the old man's head, he care-ful - ly pol-ished his

5 Dm⁷ G⁷ C Dm Em F C Dm G⁷ C

nails. And the old man but-tered a piece of bread with an inch of tad-pole's tails. When the

10 C Dm Em F C Dm G⁷

kan - ga-roo's son came home at one, he sneezed at the up - stairs maid. But she

14 C Dm Em F C Dm G⁷ C Dm Em

coun-ted to ten & sneezed back a-gain, so they called for the fire bri - gade. With a hop and sneeze, once a - gain if you please, with a hop and sneeze "A choo! A - choo! Now the kan - ga-roo's dead on the old man's bed. The maid is grow-ing a beard. And the

19 D⁷ G Am D⁷ G D⁷ G⁷

22 C Dm Em F C Dm G⁷

26 C Dm Em F C Dm

old man's bread is toast in - stead. It's much worse than I

29 Em Dm G⁷ F G⁷ C F C G⁷ C

feared, ——— It's much worse than I feared!