

Long Run

John Schumann

Arr: Samantha O'Brien (2010)

$\text{♩} = 100$
8

BS.

13 A Solo

1. You look out your win-dow at the cold grey dawn, it's se-ven o'clock on a Mon-day morn Pour a cup of co-ffee

19 Solo

be-tter make it a strong one Wea-ther man on the ra-di-o say's it's gon-na rain and it's

25 Solo

gon-na blow It-'ll be all right it-'ll be all right. it-'ll be all right. in the long run

BS.

30 Solo

2. Aus -

BS.

37 B Solo

tra lia marched out of Vi-et-nam Out on the streets a gainst Un-cle Sam We won the fight. it was a long one

44 Solo

U-ran-i-um de-mo the o-ther day one of my mates got dragged a-way As they

49 Solo

slammed the door I heard her say It-'ll be all right in the long run

3. I -

BS.

56 C Solo

tal ian bloke whoworks with me We swap laughs & com pa-ny He slapped me on the back and said You're wrong

62 Solo

son. This isn't the land I was told it would be it's not so e qual and it's not free" But it' ll

118
Solo ta-ken some right turns They've been the wrong ones Troop ships leave & the head-lines blaze Aus

124
Solo tra-li - a re-mem-bers ha-ppi-er days And the faith lives on with-in the haze. It'll be all right in the

129
Solo long run 5. So you
BS.

137 F
Solo sit in your camp You stare at the fire the doubts drop a-way as the hope gets high-er and you

141
Solo sing to your-self it'll be all right be all right in the long run. 2 And the 148

Solo sun gives ground to a long cold night, And you screw up your cou - rage for a -

151
Solo noth-er fight. But you know in your heart. It' - ll be all right. be all right in the

155
Solo long run
BS.

163 G
Solo sun streams in with po-wer and might and you look at your kids in a diff rent light and you
B. And the sun streams in with po-wer and might and you look at your kids in a diff rent light and you know in your heart as you kiss 'em good night. it' - ll be all right in the long run

168

Solo

B.

know in your heart as you kiss 'em good night it' - ll be all right in the long run