I saw the beau-ty of the world... the fists of dia-monds fall
2. hon - ey-eat- er stretched her tongue in the flu - ted crim-son flow'r.
4. saw a li - zard ga - zing at the rain - bow in the mist
5. caught the pride of love - ly blooms whose names were ne - ver known

SB.

where wa - ter jumped the gleam-ing rock high on the moun-tain wall her paint-ed fea-thers ri - ppling in the thir - sty mid - day hour her lea - ther lips were wa - ving and her tail be-gan to twist
That jos - tle with the an - gry winds high on the moun-tain stone

SB.

They spark-led in the dazz-ling sun as down the wind they blew I
She stole her child - ren's hon - ey and she sipped the bloss - om's dew
She cap-ered round the clear - ing and she chanced a step or two
I saw the gar - goyle mount-ain rocks the star flow-ers in a queue
