I was going to start a compost but I couldn't stand the smell
 So I put it in the garbage, with the glass and cans as well
 I know I should recycle it but I just don't have the time
 To be sorting through the garbage can with a hectic life like mine
 And I'm far too refined (choir 'oohs')
 To be sorting through the garbage can with a hectic life like mine.

[Key change to G]

Now it's great to save the forests but I think it's fair to say
 That if someone's job is threatened then the forest must give way
 Well we can't live without money, just look at those who do
 From their hair and clothes it's obvious, they haven't got a clue!
 Of course I don't mean you (choir is silent)
 From their hair and clothes it's obvious they haven't got a clue.

You say I shouldn't drive to work but go by bus or train
 And have me waiting half an hour each morning in the rain
 My mobile phone would get all wet, my hairspray would dissolve
 I'll be environmental if discomfort's not involved.
 I give this firm resolve (choir sings)
 I'll be environmental if discomfort's not involved.

[Key change to A]

I took some re-used bags once, when I did the weekly shop
 But I felt a little foolish so that practice had to stop
 I still buy all the packaging I used to buy before
 But now I'm feeling guilty so that counts as doing more
 And thinking's such a bore (choir is silent)
 But now I'm feeling guilty so that counts as doing more.

It's not that I hate ferrets or people who are weird
 In fact I have a friend who has two earrings in one ear
 It's just they tend to smell a bit or so the rumours go
 But I'm just being prejudiced 'cause I really wouldn't know
 And drug use makes them slow (choir sings - someone ehoes late!)
 But I'm just being prejudiced 'cause I really wouldn't know.

What do you mean - inactive? I'm PC and up-to-date
 I buy dolphin-friendly tuna and I think Greenpeace is great
 I use unleaded petrol in my brand-new Commodore
 And I'm boycotting my French class & the local French bread store
 Qui peut demander plus?
 (That means)
 Who could ask for more? (choir sings)
 And I'm boycotting my French class & the local French bread store.
