

Green among the gold

Intro --> V 1&2 --> Ch
Intro --> V 3&4 --> Ch x2 --> Coda

Rosalind & Steve Barnes
(Arr. Samantha O'Brien)

Intro $\text{♩} = 110$

Vln.

5 Verse 1 (Meredith)

S.
Dus - ty plains and i - ron chains met E - rin's sons and daugh - ters.

9
S.
Cast u - pon a bar - ren land, a far off fa - tal shore. They

13
S.
dreamed of mis - ty moun - tains in their home a - cross the wa - ter. They sang of Con - ne - ma - ra and the home they'd see no more. Now

22 Verse 2 (Judie)

S. lime - stone walls are all that's left of times of pain and fail - ure, This coun - try yields the se - crets of the beau - ty that it holds. And

30
S. tunes of E - rin's Isle are now the mu - sic of Aus - tra - lia, For I - rish hands have wo - ven strands of green a - mong the gold.

Chorus

39
T.
And so be - neath the South - ern Cross they sang their songs of Ire - land. They Vln.

44
T.
sent her sons and daugh - ters here in hun - gry days of old.

Vln.

48
Vln.

52
T.
I - rish hands have wo - ven strands of green a - mong the gold.

Vln.

57
Vln.

Verse 3 (Men)

63 S.

67 Times were hard, at home and soon we took a great pro - mo - tion. To 71 start a brand_ new life u - pon_ the far side of the globe. And

75 now we find our hearts are stran - ded some - where in mid o - cean. Now our days are full_ of sun - shine and our fu - ture's full of_ hope. Now

Verse 4 (All)

80 S.

child - ren sing a bro - ken life of shear - ers and_ bush - ran - gers. And 84 learn to play our_ mu - sic and_ to dance the steps_ of old. Though their

88 hearts are in Aus - tra - li - a they ne - ver will be stran - gers. To the

92 land we left be - hind_ us, they're the green a - mong - the gold. [---> Chorus x2 ---> Coda]

Vln.

97 Coda A

Vln.

105

Vln.

113 B

Vln.

121

Vln.