

Well I hope you have recovered after a huge season! And what a show it was.

Such a happy event – many of the songs I'd never heard before but sang with enjoyment. Hard to pick standouts when the ensemble rose to such stirring heights as in 'Kid's Fears' and 'Burn', but I was moved by Greg Thompson, David Wilson and really blown away by Kristy Dickson. Christine is just marvelous on stage. Your duet with Greg was terrific and my tears came for Judie Eddington very beautiful singing. I've dragged out my Mary Black book and started singing some again.

I could see and feel the audience enjoyment. Well done!!
