

Only a woman's heart

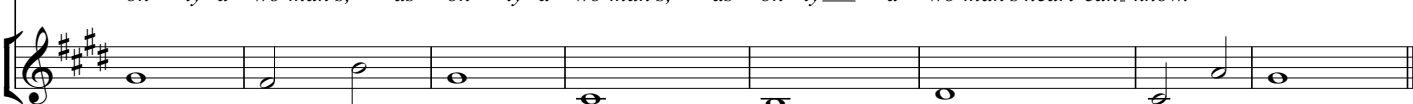

Eleanor McEvoy (Arr. Maria Dunn, 2016)

$\text{♩} = 120$

VI.
Cl.

A Chorus 1

10
JE.
My heart is low, my heart is so low. As on - ly a wo-man's heart can be. As Cl.

18
JE.
on - ly a wo-man's, as on - ly a wo-man's, as on - ly a wo-man's heart can know.
Cl.

B Verse 1

26
JE.
The tears that drip, from my be-wil-dered eyes, taste of bit ter sweet ro-mance.

34 (all sops)
JE.
You're still in my hopes, you're still in my mind, yeh And even though I man age on my own. My

C Chorus 2

42
JE.
heart is low, my heart is so low. As on - ly a wo-man's heart can be. As Cl.

50
JE.
on - ly a wo-man's, as on - ly a wo-man's, as on - ly a wo-man's heart can know.
Cl.

58 D

VI.

Cl.

66

VI.

Cl.

73 E Verse 2

JE. Where restless eyes, re-veal my troubled soul. And in my flood, my weary heart.

Cl.

81 (all sops)

JE. I mourn for my dreams, I mourn for my wasted love. And while I know that I'll survive alone. My

F Chorus 3

89

JE. heart is low, my heart is so low. As on-ly a wo-man's heart can be. As Cl.

97 1.

JE. on-ly a wo-man's, as on-ly a wo-man's, as on-ly a wo-man's heart can know. My

Cl.

105 2.

JE. know. as on-ly a wo-man's heart can know.

Cl.