

Epilogue

Graham Sowerby
Arr: Samantha O'Brien (2013)

♩=128

A

Rec.

5

Rec.

B

EE

When all the world goes cra - zy and all the tal - kings o - ver, and there is no so - lu - tion

15

EE

but to fight and die The old men on park ben - ches re - mem - ber mu - ddy tren - ches and barb -

22

EE

wire, there'll be no po - ppies this time, no li - lacs in 26

EE

the spring - time and no - one left to ho - nour no bells to chime

31 C

Rec.

35

Rec.

39 D

Keyboard tacet

EE

And where will you and I be will you be far far from me And will we have to part then,

45

EE

with no good - bye Oh will we be to - ge - ther and will your eyes still shine with love for

52

EE

me and will we walk hand in hand, a - long the street

56

EE

that's mem - ories and share old pho - to - graphs of days gone by.

61 E
Rec.

69
Rec.

77
Rec.

83
Rec.

91 F
EE

And on that fi - nal mor - ning_ a hun-dred suns_ are daw - ning

Rec.

95
EE

The dust of man's_ en - dea-vours ru - ins in the sky_

Rec.

99
EE

The earth will be_ a new star, a man made sup-er no - va ro - lling by_

Rec.

105 G
EE

and all the an - cient pla nets will watch their bur-ning ba - by

Rec.

109
EE

and won-der how one so young there playing with fire.

Rec.