This musical score consists of four staves, each representing a different voice or instrument. The top two staves are for 'DW' (likely a singer) and 'B Sax'. The bottom two staves are for 'A Sax' and 'B Sax'. The music is in common time. Measure 26 starts with DW singing 'This time' and B Sax playing eighth-note chords. The lyrics continue through measure 29 with DW singing 'po-wer to be pow-er-ful' and B Sax providing harmonic support. Measures 33 and 37 show DW singing the refrain 'We're all some-one's daugh-ter' and 'We're all some-one's son', respectively, while the other voices provide harmonic and rhythmic support. The score uses various dynamics like forte and piano, and includes rests and sustained notes. Measure 37 concludes with a question 'down the bar-rel of a gun?'.
