

May Night on the Mountains

Words: Henry Lawson

Music: Ian Hamilton

L=80

2

Hp.

Ian

4 D Am D Am

'Tis won-der-ful time when these hours be - gin, these long 'small hours' of night.

W.

'Tis won-der-ful time _____ Oh____ Those

Hp.

Ian

9 D Am D Em D

When the grass is crisp and the air is thin____ and the stars come close and bright. And the

W.

long small hours of night

Hp.

A L=95 faster

15 Am D Am D

moon hangs caught in a sil-ver - y veil, from clouds of a steel - y grey; and the

W.

Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh

Hp.

19 D Am Em a tempo D C D C

Ian hard cold blue of the sky grows pale in the won-der-ful Mil - ky Way.
W. There is
H. There is

B
26 D faster $\text{♩} = 95$ Am D Am

Ian some - thing wrong with this star of ours, a mor - tal plank un- sound,
W. That
H. That

30 D Am Em $\text{♩} = 180\text{mpo}$ D

Ian can-not be charged to the migh - ty powers who guide the high stars round.
W. Though
H. Though

C

35 Am D Am D

Ian man is grea - ter than bird or beast, though wis-dom is still his boast. He W.
Hp.

D Am Em D

39 Ian sure - ly re - sem - bles Na - ture least and the things that vex her most. He W.
Hp.

43

Ian sure - ly re - sem - bles Na - ture least._____ And the things that vex her most.

D

48 G Em Bm G Am E D Am Em D

Ian Oh say some muse of a larg - er star_ Some muse of the u - ni-verse. If W.
Hp.

55

Am D Em D

Ian they who peo-ple those plan - ets far _____ Are bet-ter than we or worse.____

W. or worse.____

Hp.