

May Night on the Mountains

Ian M. Cym.

3 D Am D Am

'Tis won-der-ful time when these hours be - gin, these long'small hours' of night.

3 'Tis won-der-ful time _____

3

9 D Am D Em D

When the grass is crisp and the air is thin_____ and the stars come close and bright. And the Cym.

A 15 Am faster D Am D D Am

moon hangs caught in a sil-ver-y veil, fronclouds of a steel - y grey; and the hard cold blue of the sky grows pale in the

Ah Ah Ah Ah Ah Ah Ah

Cym.

a tempo 21 Em D C D C won - der - ful Mil - ky Way. There is

oh ah oh ah _____

B 26 D faster 95 Am D Am D Am

some - thing wrong with this star of ours, a mor - tal plank un - sound, That can-not be charged to the migh - ty powers who

Ah Ah Ah Ah oh ah

Cym.

32 Em D
 Ian guide the high stars round.
 M. oh ah
 Cym.

C
35 Am D Am D D Am
 Ian man is grea-ter than bird or beast, though wis-dom is still his boast. He sure-ly re - sem-bles Na - ture least and the
 M. He sure-ly re - sem-bles Na - ture least

41 Em D
 Ian things that vex her most. He sure-ly re - sem-bles Na - ture least. And the things that vex her most.

48 G D Em Bm G Am
 Ian Oh
 M. Oh
 Cym.

51 E D Am Em D
 Ian say some muse of a larg - er star Some muse of the u - ni - verse. If they who peo-ple those plan
 M. say some muse of a large_ er star

56 Am D Em D
 Ian - ets far Are bet-ter than we or worse.
 M. or worse.