

Rose of Allendale

Traditional Irish

F Bb F

Oh the sky was clear, the morn - was fair. No Where' - er I wandered to east - or west, And
And - when my fe - vered lips - were parched On

6 C C7

breath came - o - ver the sea, _____ When - faith be - gan to lour _____ Con - Af - ri - ca's burn - ing _____ sands. _____ She -

10 F Bb F

-Ma - ry left her high - land home and -solving - still was she - to me In whis - pered hopes of hap - pi ness, And

14 C7 F

wan - dered - - forth with me. _____
sor - row's lone - ly hour. _____
tales - of fo - reign lands. _____

18 F Gm C F

Though - flo - wers deck'd the moun - tain side and Oh - tem - pests rent my lone - ly boat and they
My - life has been a wil - der - ness un -

23 C C7

fra - grance - filled the vale, _____ By rent the - quiver - ing sails. _____ One blest by - for - tune's gale; _____ Had

27 F Bb F

far the sweet - est flo wer there was the maid - en form with - stood the storm was the fate not linked my love - to her Sweet

31 C7 F

Rose _____ of Al - len - dale. _____
Rose _____ of Al - len - dale. _____
Rose _____ of Al - len - dale. _____

Chorus

35 F Bb

Sweet Rose of Al - len - dale, Sweet

40 Gm Dm C C7

Rose of Al - len - dale. By One Had

44 Bb F

far the sweet - est flo - wer there was the mai - den form with - stood the storm was the fate not linked my love to her Sweet

48 C7 F 1. Fine

Rose of Al - len - dale.
Rose of Al - len - dale.
Rose of Al - len - dale.

Instrumental Interlude after Verse 2

52 F Bb F

57 C7 F