

Hi All;

And so we say farewell to another LW Concert. It has been a memorable experience and Elizabeth & I would like to thank everyone for their support and encouragement; it was much appreciated.

It was a wonderful concert and enjoyed by many. This was brought home to me when friends and acquaintances who had NOT attended the concert came and said how good they had been told it was by those who were there.

See you all at the next one;

David & Elizabeth