After supper we'd sit around the fire, the old folks'd spit and chew,
 Pa would talk about the farm and the war, and Granny'd sing a ballad or two.
 I'd sit and listen and watch the fire till the cobwebs filled my head,
 Next thing I'd know I'd wake up in the mornin' in the middle of the old feather bed.

Well, I love my Ma, I love my Pa, I love Granny and Grandpa too,
 I been fishin' with my uncle, I rassled with my cousin, I even kissed Aunt Lou ooo!
 But if I ever had to make a choice, I guess it ought-a be said
 That I'd trade 'em all plus the gal down the road for Grandma's feather bed.
