

The Prehistoric Animal Brigade

(M L Reeve)

Listen to the chorus,
Of the brontosaurus
And the stegosaurus
Down by the swamp.

Along comes a dinosaur,
Making such a loud roar,
Thumping with his feet and going
Stomp, stomp, stomp.

Pterodactyl flapping,
Long beak clacking,
Big teeth snapping,
Down from a tree.

Here's a woolly mammoth,
Tusks all curly,
Joins the hurly burly.

*Oh dear me, what a noise! (What a noise!)
It's the boys (It's the boys)
Of the Prehistoric Animal Brigade!*
