

The Hungry Mile

W: Ernest Antony M: Denis Rice (Arr. Jill Stubington)

Vla. 13/4

Fl. 9
Vla. 9

Fl. 13
Vla. 13

EE 17 A
They tramp there in their leg - ions on morn - ings — dark and cold To

EE 22
beg the right to slave for bread from Syd-ney's lords of gold They toil and sweat in mis - er - y it would

EE 28
make the dev - il smile To see the Syd - ney whar - fies tramp - ing down the hun - gry mile On

EE 34 B
ships from all the seas they came that o - thers — of their kind May

EE 38
nev - er know the pinch of want or feel the mis - er - y blind That makes the lives of men a hell in those con - dit - ions
Fl. 38

45
 EE vile The hope - less lot of those who have to Fl.

48
 EE tramp the hun - gry mile
 S.
 Fl. The

52 C
 S. slaves of men who know no thought of an - y_ thing but gain Who Fl.

56
 S. wring their bru - tal profits_ from the blood and sweat and pain Of all the dis - in - her - i - ted who

62
 S. slave and starve the while U - pon the ships be - side the wharves a long the hun - gry mile

68 D
 EE time will come and come it must when those same slaves shall rise And

72
 EE through the re - vol - u - tion's smoke as - cend - ing to the skies The

76
 EE mas - ter then will show the fear he hides be - hind his smile At

80
 EE those his slaves who on that day shall scorn the hun - gry mile