

The Hungry Mile

W: Ernest Antony M: Denis Rice (Arr. Jill Stubington)

Vla.

9
Vla.

17 A
EE

They tramp there in their leg - ions on morn - ings__ dark and cold To beg the right to slave for bread from Syd - ney's lords of gold They

22
EE

26
EE

toil and sweat in mis - er - y it would make the dev - il smile To 30

EE

see the Syd - ney whar - fies tramp - ing down the hun - gry mile On

34 B C F G Am G/B C
EE

ships from all the seas they came that o - thers__ of their kind May

Vla.

38 Dm G F/C G
EE

nev - er know the pinch of want or feel the mis - er - y blind That

Vla.

42 Am F Em Am/E
EE

makes the lives of men a hell in those con - dit - ions vile The

Vla.

46 C Dm Em G F G C

EE hope - less lot of those who have to tramp the hun - gry mile

A.

Vla.

The

52 C

A. slaves of men who know no thought of an - y - thing but gain Who

Vla.

56

A. wring their bru - tal pro - fits from the blood and sweat and pain Of 60

A. all the dis - in - her - i - ted who slave and starve the while U -

64

EE

A. pon the ships be - side the wharves a - long the hun - gry mile

The

68 D

EE time will come and come it must when those same slaves shall rise And

72

EE through the re - vol - u - tion's smoke as - cend - ing to the skies The

76

EE mas - ter then will show the fear he hides be - hind his smile At

80

EE those his slaves who on that day shall scorn the hun - gry mile