

The Hungry Mile

W: Ernest Antony M: Denis Rice (Arr. Jill Stubington)

Vla.

9
Vla.

17 A
EE

They tramp there in their leg - ions on morn - ings dark and cold To beg the right to slave for bread from Syd - ney's lords of gold They

26
EE

toil and sweat in mis - er - y it would make the dev - il smile To see the Syd - ney whar - fies tramp - ing down the hun gry mile On

34 B C F G Am G/B C Dm G F/C G
EE

ships from all the seas they came that o - thers of their kind May nev - er know the pinch of want or feel the mis - er - y blind That

42 Am F Em Am/E C DmEm G F G C
EE

makes the lives of men a hell in those con dit ions vile The hope - less lot of those who have to tramp the hun gry mile

51 C
S.
A.
T.
B.
The slaves of men who know no thought of an - y thing but gain Who

56
S.
A.
T.
B. wring their bru - tal profits from the blood and sweat and pain Of 60

S. all the dis - in - her - i - ted who slave and starve the while U -

A. all the dis - in - her - i - ted who slave and starve the while U -

T. all the dis - in - her - i - ted who slave and starve the while U -

B. all the dis - in - her - i - ted who slave and starve the while U -

64

EE

S. pon the ships be - side the wharves a long the hun - gry mile

A. pon the ships be - side the wharves a - long the hun - gry mile

T. pon the ships be - side the wharves a - long the hun - gry mile

B. pon the ships be - side the wharves a - long the hun - gry mile

The

68 D

EE time will come and come it must when those same slaves shall rise And

72

EE through the re - vol - u - tion's smoke as - cend - ing to the skies The 76

EE mas - ter then will show the fear he hides be - hind his smile At 80

EE those his slaves who on that day shall scorn the hun - gry mile