

A song that is sung

For Josie - Words & Music by I. R. Williams

C                      Dm                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C

The pla - net we live on that we say is ours, Has mil - lions of peo - ple to house.
 The wa - ter-y worlds of the ri - vers and seas, Of o - ceans and drop - lets of rain.
 The tin - i - est crea - ture the small - est of things, A time and a place to be - gin.

8                      C                      Dm                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C

For ev - 'ry-thing liv - ing there's food to be found in the air, the wa - ter and ground.
 Are born in the sky in the clouds up a - bove, will fall, but will come back a - gain.
 A piece of the puzzle a part to be played, to live and to share and to sing.

Chorus

17                      C                      Dm                      G<sup>7</sup>

There's a song that is sung through the night and the day. A song sung by

23                      C                      F

ev - 'ry - one in their own way. A mel - o - dy liv - ing a tune that we

29                      G                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C                      G                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C

breathe a rhy - thm in all that we see.

Coda

38                      Dm                      C                      Dm                      C

46                      Dm                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C                      Dm                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C

The earth she is bleed ing and all un - der the sun must

55                      Dm                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C                      G<sup>7</sup>                      C

know that in the end We are one.