

Loosely Woven – On the Road Again

The much loved Sydney troupe, Loosely Woven, is heading for Grafton and Yamba again following last year's outstandingly successful tour. The group of 20 will be joined by 12 singers and instrumentalists from all over the Clarence Valley.

An acoustic group, Loosely Woven offers an awesome variety of folk music, all performed without a mike or amp in sight! With audience participation actively encouraged, this truly is 'making music for the sheer fun of it'.

Admission to each concert is adults $10 and children free, fundraising for the Wooli Volunteer Rescue Association and Yamba Museum.

The concerts take place on Saturday evening April 19 at 7pm at Grafton Salvation Army Hall in Oliver Street, and on Sunday afternoon April 20 at 2pm at the Yamba Public School Hall in Angourie Road.

Tickets are available from Buckley's Music, Grafton and Yamba Museum and will also be available at the door. As numbers are strictly limited, book early to avoid disappointment.

Loosely Woven promises well over two hours of good old fashioned, light hearted fun for the whole family. You really don't want to miss this unique musical extravaganza!
