

'Tis Woman that seduces all mankind

(Filch)

G D G C G/D D G

f

D G G D G

F. 'Tis Wo - man that se - du - ces all man - kind, By

p

5 Em Am D A D

F. her we first were taught the wheed - ling arts: Her

7 Am B<sup>7</sup> Em A

F. ve - ry eyes can cheat; when most she's kind, She

9 D A/C# D G D/A A D

F. tricks us of our mo - ney with our hearts.

F. D G/D                      G                      C/G                      Em

For her, like Wolves by night we roam for prey, And

13 C                      Am B                      Em Em/B                      B                      Em

prac - tise ev - 'ry fraud to bribe her charms; For 15 Em Am                      B° C                      A/C#                      D suits of Love, like Law, are won by pay, And 17 D G                      C                      G/D                      D G

beau - ty must be fee'd in - to our arms.

G                      D7                      G C                      G/D D G