

The Daily Telegraph

Two-timing rock idol sued for millions

Pym may go in Cabinet

144 MAJORITY FOR TORIES

Labour pressure on Foot to resign

MRS THATCHER was having talks with senior colleagues last night about reshaping her Cabinet after leading the Tories to their biggest electoral victory since 1935—giving the Government a majority of 144 over all other parties.

Sinn Fein drives out Fitt

By KENNETH CLARKE and COLIN BRADY in Belfast

GERRY FITT, famed for his courageous anti-apartheid speech and his role in the 1976 election, has been driven out of Sinn Fein by a vote of 100 to 100 in the party's executive committee.

She may announce some changes tonight and there is increasing speculation in Whitehall that Mr Pym will be moved from the Foreign Office says One Political Correspondent.

Labour's crushing defeat has brought immediate pressure on Mr Foot to take an early decision to give up the party leadership, says One Political Staff. The leading contenders to succeed him are Mr Hattersley, Mr Shore and Mr Kinnock.

With all 632 results declared the new Commons will comprise:

CONSERVATIVES	307
LABOUR	203
LIBERAL	17
SOCIAL DEMOCRATS	4
Plaid Cymru, 2; Scottish National 2; Others, 15.

Though winning almost 25 per cent of the vote, the Liberal-SDP Alliance failed to achieve five

The Terrace
4.40pm, Friday +
7.40pm, Sun.

Another Sinn Fein candidate, Mr Gerry Adams, the abortion rights MP for Fermoy, was elected to the Commons.

Labour with their predicted 144 majority, giving them an overall Commons majority of 144 seats compared with 45 in 1979.

In interviews yesterday, the Prime Minister confirmed that Government changes were being considered over the weekend.

Asked if she was a good judge, she replied: "No, I am not, but I have had to learn what she called yesterday at party headquarters to thank staff for their part in the campaign. Several days are expected to elapse before he arrives at a conclusion.

Asked if she was a good judge, she replied: "No, I am not, but I have had to learn more than 20 Conservatives for honours for political services, and four Liberals are honoured after consultations with Mr Steel, the Liberal leader, in accordance with the usual practice. Mr Foot did not indicate

"Congratulations on such a terrific show"
"we are still high from your performance - loved by all"
"the most enjoyable Trial performance I've ever seen"

